FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE TUG-OF-WAR TUESDAY

Annual Hose Battle Set For 8 P. M., December 12—Historic Potomac Park Will Be Scene of Action—Foley Confident of Sophomore Revenge, While Frosh Promise to Pull Sophs Through By Inches.

SIDES LIMITED TO FIFTY EACH, WITH BRYAN MORSE TO ASSURE FAIR PLAY—FIREMEN WILL PLAY HOSE.

The night will be cold, the water wet and colder. Fifty shivering Frosh and half a hundred Sophs, a rope betwixt a whistle, a rush of water. O, woe be unto the weaker side that get flood of aqua.

For the annual Freshman Sophomore tug of war will be staged next Tuesday, December 12, at 8 p. m., at the foot of Seventeenth Street.

Arrangements are complete, impartial firemen will play the hose, a six-inch rope will bear the strain, a battery of searchlights will furnish illumination, Bryan Morse as referee. All that is necessary is fifty Frosh and fifty Sophs. Spectators will flock from miles around to see—the Frosh promise "the Sophs get their annual bath." "Oh, revenge is sweet," says Bill Foley, the Sophomore president. "The Freshmen will, indeed, recognize the superiority of the Sophomore Class. Whatever we have done, or failed to do, will be redeemed next Tuesday, and then the Arrow Collar add will, indeed, rue the day when he jumped from the window and disappeared."

As little has been seen of the Frosh "hero" since the eventful election, his plans can not be learned.

Speaking in his place, Clements, the husky sergeant at arms, says: "Oh, verily, the Sophs hair will stand on end, and their bones will quiver even before the water touches them, when they see the young giants of the Freshmen Class. The Sophs were pulled through the water last year, and although we can do it much faster this year, we plan to pull them through by inches, so that each drop of water may have every chance to reach their skinny bodies."

FRESHMEN TO ORGANIZE BASKETBALL SQUAD SOON

Attention, Frosh! There is a movement on foot to organize a Freshman basketball team. This is the first year that a Freshman team has been started. There is a notice on the Bulletin Board for candidates to sign. So far 15 persons have signed. If enough are left after the Varsity squad has been selected, a schedule will be arranged whereby the Freshmen will play some good teams. Perhaps the Sophs will have nerve enough to get up a team and try to beat the lowly Frosh.

All who have not signed up as yet do so and then report for practice regularly. Practice will probably be held in the afternoon at the Coliseum.

LAW GRADS STAND HIGH

While the George Washington University Law School does not design its courses as a preparation to passing state bar examinations, it is gratifying to know the marked success of last year's graduates in the bar examinations of the several states.

Mr. Marcel Conway took first rank in the Vermont examination. Chas. S. Piegrass took first place in the Oklahoma bar examination. In West Virginia, where twenty-seven persons took the bar examination, the man who stood first had part of his training at George Washington and part at Harvard; the man who stood second had all his training at George Washington. In Pennsylvania, where a large number took the examination, and many failed, the five George Washington men all passed.

CALL FOR GIRL SWIMMERS

Girls, it is not too late to go out for swimming!

First practice will be held Saturday evening, December 9, from 6 o'clock to 7, and all girls are urged to come. For about six weeks tryouts are to be conducted to determine the girls best qualified to have permanent places on the team.

The pool is the Y. W. C. A. pool at Sixth and E Streets. Come down at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

TWO NEW BUILDINGS IF TRUSTEES APPROVE

Special Meeting of Board Next Week Will Consider Plans for New Structures.

GYMNASIUM POSSIBLE.

Program Calls For Facilities That Will Compare With Best Universities In the Country.

"Plans are now being drawn for at least two new University buildings, and will be presented for the approval of the Board of Trustees at a special meeting called for that purpose next week," stated President Hodgkins.

These buildings would be built on property recently acquired near the present holdings, and if the program is approved, it is said by those who have seen the plans, they will be structures that will compare favorably with any college buildings in the United States.

Although it could not be learned what the new structures would be used for, nor when they would be started, it was intimated by the President that no time would be lost in letting the contract and starting the work once the necessary approval is obtained. Naturally classroom needs will be taken care of first, but it was stated by a high official that the Board of Trustees might also consider the construction of a gymnasium.

COMPULSORY TAX BACKED BY MANY STUDENT LEADERS

Managers Report Plenty of Material For Winning Teams, But No Facilities For Training.

In the last issue of the Hatchet it was stated that members of the Pyramid Honor Society would give statements concerning the conditions of the various activities in the University. They are as follows:

Fitzhugh Hurley, manager of the basketball for 1922, says: "To put out a winning team in basketball at George Washington under prevailing conditions, is nearly impossible. Proper facilities are lacking to enable the men to practice, and the lack of student support in attending the games gives little encouragement to the men on the team. I believe if every student had some money invested they would take more interest in this and other activities."

James C. Hatcher, president of the Pyramid Society and former Varsity basketball and wrestling manager, says: "The condition of athletics at George Washington is deplorable. In my experience as wrestling manager and coach last year I found that there is sufficient material and interest in our University to put out a highly successful team if we had ample facilities and a paid coach, who could develop the material. Much is the day when we will change from a course of fanatical conservatism to one in keeping with modern day colleges. It would be better to have no activities than to be trampled upon by fourth-class schools in the field of college sports."

JUNIOR WEEK COMMITTEE WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Membership of the Junior Week Committee will be announced in about two weeks after the presidents of the Junior Classes in the five colleges have had time to confer on the subject, according to Gene Thomas, president of the Junior Class in Columbian College.

MIXER TO-NIGHT

The Embryo Medics will hold their premier mixer to-night in Lisner Hall at 8 o'clock. It will be the first of a series planned by the Freshmen Class of the Medical School. After the usual speeches, the mixer will resolve itself into dancing and refreshments. Howard L. Smith, president of the Freshmen Class, in extending a hearty invitation to students of all other branches of the University to attend announces that the music will be furnished by Boernstein, and that the subscription will be $1.

DRAMATICS REVIVED BY CHRISTMAS PLAYS DEC. 21

W. U. C. Arranging Short Sketches for Production Before Holidays.

The student body of G. W. is privileged to witness a miracle. After having been dead and buried a year, G. W. dramatics are again with us. The Women's University Club will present on December 21 and December 22, at 8 p. m., in the chapel at Lisner Hall, two plays—"A Doctor in Spite of Himself" and "A Man and a Maid." Moliere is the author of the first and Parker of the latter.

The cast of the plays is as follows:

"A Doctor in Spite of Himself." Sganerelle Mr. Knowles
Mortine (wife of Sganerelle) Miss Knapper
Miss Dickey
Valere (servant of Geronte) Mr. Gurdner
Lucas (servant of Geronte) Miss Carter
Geronte (a country gentleman) Mr. Pooge
Leandre (Lucinde's lover) Mr. S. E. Weller
Jacqueline (servant to Lucinde) Miss Rice
Miss Cass
Lucinde (daughter of Geronte) Miss Smith
Miss McKelway
Miss Volley

"A Man and a Maid."

Gwendolyn Emma—Tom Fusch
Daisy (her friend), Elizabeth Coleman
Harold (Gwendolyn's brother) Harry Johnson

Dick (his friend) Smithwick

The committee to assist in the production will be chosen this week. They will have charge of publicity, tickets, programs, seating, and stage properties. This committee is to be chosen from students interested in this enterprise. All interested are requested to meet in room 1 on Tuesday, December 5, and Thursday, December 7. A nominal fee of 35 cents will be necessary to keep out intruders.

JUNIOR TEACHERS MEET

Junior Teachers will hold a meeting in Lisner Hall, Wednesday evening, January 3rd, 1923. All Juniors of Teachers' College are urged to be present, as important business will be discussed.

The Football Hop at the City Club to-night is informal. The price of admission is three dollars, two dollars for stags. Meyer Davis' Famous Nine, and Le Paradis Orchestra. Festivities of unusual nature. Ten p. m. until 2 a. m. Tables reserved at Childs' following the dance.

The Hops of Hops To-night!

All the girls are digging out the fancy frills and untying the curl papers, and all the boys are shining up the old patent leathers and brushing poppa's "soup and fish." The City Club potuhs are shining the floor of the big ballroom, and Meyer Davis' Famous Nine are sleeping overtime to be all pepped up to-night.

Precisely at ten p. m., to the strains of "Lonesome Eve," the annual football festival, the Hop of Hops, will get under way. From that hour until two of the following morning the boys and girls will dance and dance and dance. One short intermission at midnight, when the football boys get their sweaters and another, much shorter, when the Famous Nine gives way to the musickers from Le Paradis.

The Hop is sure to be some party.

What with the superior music, the pretty girls, the cakes, the football team, and the gallons of punch, and what with the tickets selling fast at the extremely low rate of three dollars (two berries for stags), no one who gets as near as the door will ever forget it!

This dance is the first on the official calendar of the Student Council. Naturally, the committee in charge is going to every extreme to throw a big affair, and from what has already been done, a success is sure.

Earl Manson, chairman of the Student Council Social Committee, has urged ere this that the students make haste to purchase their tickets. Yesterday he was smiling with that satisfied glee. "They won't forget this dance, not by a long shot. I could spend the rest of the day in presenting arguments to persuade the students to attend. But what's the use? I know they will be there!"

The Hop of Hops To-night! The City Club. Ten p. m. Informal. Three dollars. Two dollars for stags.

INTERFRAT ASSOCIATION PLANS BOWLING LEAGUE

In order to keep pace with the rapid growth of interarsity activities as manifested by the recent organization of the Intersorority Bowling League, President Knute Nilsson, of the Interfraternity Association, has announced that as in former years a Fraternity Bowling League will be organized in the near future.

As yet no definite plans for the Fraternity Bowling League have been made, and final arrangements will probably be postponed until after the termination of the present Fraternity Basketball League. The schedule of games to be played will be announced later.

Participation in this sport by members of the Pan-Hellenic Council is sure to add much interest and friendly rivalry to the contest among the various organizations represented in the Fraternity Bowling League.

GIRL DEBATERS WANTED

All girls interested in debating, whether they have had any experience or not, are invited to participate in the try-outs for a girls' team. They will be held on December 18, at the Law School, beginning at 7.45. Ten minute speeches will be required of every candidate on either side of the question: "Resolved, That the ship subsidy legislation now pending in Congress be passed."

G. U. Too Much For G. W.

Until George Washington can put a team on the field that will have a sporting chance of defeating Georgetown, it is to be hoped that that team will not be scheduled as the Turkey Day attraction. G. U. is plainly too much for G. W. Their team outweighed the Hatchetite warriors twenty pounds to a man. Every student in the University has a holiday on Thanksgiving Day, and they all look forward to that day in expectation of witnessing a good game. You can not expect them to want to go out to a football field and see their team walked over rough shod. Let those in charge of the 1923 schedule give us a game for this day at least that will be a pleasure to watch and that the Quigleyites will have a chance to

This is not meant as a criticism of the team and the caliber of the playing they presented to Exendine's wards. They put up a splendid, a remarkable fight. Jerry Murphy was easily the individual star of the contest. All of the players showed creditable form. No team on earth that had fought as hard against an eleven for three periods could have done any better than our men did when they had to face a fresh first team in the fourth quarter. What Georgetown did in putting those men in was perfectly legitimate, but it was not the most sportsmanlike.

Do Not Discontinue Activities

Pyramid Honor Society has recommended "the discontinuance of Student Activities unless the Compulsory Tax is instituted." This recommendation is very unwise. It may be impossible to institute a Compulsory Tax at this time and yet it may also be quite possible to have one in the future. Are we to destroy the very instrument by which that tax will be secured?

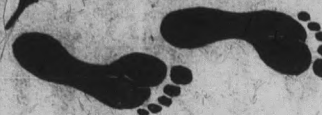

On the other hand, it should be the policy of organizations like the Pyramid to work for the tax with what materials they have at hand. The present Activities form the foundation upon which a bigger and better student organization will be built in the years to come, and also the only ground upon which a campaign for a Compulsory Tax could be built. In view of the opinion of the greater part of the student body it would be well for Pyramid to reconsider its recent declaration.

The Freshman-Sophomore Tug of War

This year both the first and second year classes have lacked the spirit of those of years gone by. Time-honored customs have been either abandoned or those students attempting to carry them out have failed. Interclass rivalry is a condition that benefits both the student and the school. It forms one of the steps that college men travel over that endears them to their particular university.

The Freshman-Sophomore Tug of War is to be held next Tuesday evening at the foot of Seventeenth Street. This contest will give these two classes an opportunity to retrieve their former errors. It is to be hoped that they take this chance and both turn out for the event in full force. This is an annual custom; let us make this year's tug of war the best one ever held.

THE SPY

President.
Sunday evening begins the third week of "Able's Irish Rose," Anna Nichols' Jewish-Irish comedy success. In this play Miss Nichols has made the utmost of her theme and the result is a fast laughing comedy. Henry Duffy as Able marries Eileen Wilson as Rosemary Murphy, and from that point a laugh a minute is provided. It is pure entertaining comedy and should be seen for an evening of enjoyment.

Garrick.
At this writing Manager Taylor has not succeeded in obtaining an attraction for next week, but is still endeavoring to do so. Announcement will be made in the daily papers if an attraction is booked.

Poll's.
"The Passing Show of 1922" holds the boards at Poll's next week, beginning Sunday evening. Willie and Eugene Howard again carry the leading roles in the approved Howard style. Among the supporting members of the cast are a pair of dancers, formerly featured with the Follies Bergere of Paris. And the girls! Oh, yes, there is the usual amount of beautiful chorines. Each of the 26 scenes is given a background of girls. This is the first revue to show here this season and should be well received.

National.
David Belasco brings David Warfield to us next week in "The Merchant of Venice," by one William Shakespeare. A superb combination. Shakespeare, Belasco, Warfield. There is no need to praise this play. All lovers of good work and Shakespeare will see it.

This Week.
President—"Able's Irish Rose." Able gets himself an Irish Rose although Poppa desires a Jewish Rosie, and then the fun begins. Comedy honors go to Leo Hoyt and Robert Lowe, the respective fathers. Recommended.

Garrick—"Just Married." Lynn Overman gains bright comedy laurels and Vivian Martin is very lovely as the bride who is not a bride. A comedy revolving around intoxication and a stateroom mix-up. Recommended.

National—"La Tendresse." A good play indifferently acted. Henry Miller and Ruth Chatterton head the cast. Get a front seat if you wish to hear.

Poll's—San Carlos Opera Company in a series of grand operas. A treat for lovers of the opera.

All set for the football hop?

Here's hoping that the stags leave us enough room at the City Club to get the orchestra in the ballroom.

IPSE DIXIT and GALILEO

There was much learning but little real knowledge in Galileo's time (1564-1642). Aristotle was swallowed in bad Latin translations. Ipse dixit. No one checked him by what seemed vulgar, coarse experiment.

Galileo fought against the dead hand of tradition. He did not argue about Aristotle, but put him to the test. Aristotle led his readers to believe that of two bodies the heavier will fall the faster. Galileo simply climbed to the top of the Leaning Tower of Pisa and dropped two unequal weights. The "best people" were horrified; they even refused to believe the result—that the weights reached the ground in equal times.

"Look at the world, and experiment, experiment," cried Galileo.

The biggest man in the 16th century was not Galileo in popular estimation, but Suleiman the Magnificent, the Ottoman Emperor, who swept through Eastern Europe with fire and sword and almost captured Vienna. Where is his magnificence now?

Galileo gave us science—established the paramount right of experimental evidence. Suleiman did little to help the world.

Hardly an experiment is made in modern science which does not apply Galileo's results. When, for instance, the physicists in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company study the motions of electrons in rarified atmospheres, or experiment to heighten the efficiency of generators and motors, they follow Galileo's example and substitute facts for beliefs.

WILBUR URGES INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT CHAPEL

Dean Wilbur would like a large attendance at chapel Wednesday, as it will be one of the most interesting and profitable of the year. The attendance at chapel has been one of Dean Wilbur's greatest problems. The average number of students who come to chapel is twenty-five. This is not a very good showing out of the four thousand students in the University.

It has been a great desire of Dean Wilbur's to invite some of our local ministers to speak on different subjects to the students, but this will be impossible unless the attendance is greatly increased.

One of the most entertaining chapels that are promised for the near future is to be held on the 18th of December under student direction. It will be a Christmas pageant, and although no details have been given out as yet, the girls in charge promise an interesting program.

WHITE GHOSTS REPRESENT G. W. IN SAFETY PARADE

The Ghost Walked! In the safety week parade last Friday, G. W. U. had a whole row of ghosts, moving with mournful tread. This was one of the many interesting features of the parade. Various gruesome but vivid floats passed before the crowd, but the three most forceful were the Christmas float, the Graveyard, and the "End of the Road Hog."

ENJOY PI PHI DANCE.

Pi Beta Phi held an open house tea dance, inviting the whole University. Thanksgiving afternoon at 2400 Sixteenth Street. Pete Marica Krazy Kat Music kept the dancers on their toes from five till eight.

G. W., Md. State, and lots of boys home for Thanksgiving were there; so many stage that every girl's popularity was assured. The floor was crowded, but no one could mind such a little thing as having his toes stepped on occasionally.

One thousand three hundred and fifty of the four thousand students enrolled in the University attend class in the morning.

MANY MEN OUT AT FIRST BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Final Arrangements for Fordham Game Completed—Photograph of Squad to Be Taken Tuesday.

A large squad turned out for basketball practice at the Coliseum last Tuesday evening and indications are that George Washington will place on the floor one of the strongest basketball teams in its history. The management of the Varsity team is highly pleased with the Inter Fraternity Basketball Tournament, and the material that is being developed for the Varsity team and the encouraging interest that is being accrued for this particular branch of University activities.

The Director of Athletics of Fordham University in New York City, wired Manager Edwin S. Bettelheim, Jr., of the George Washington team that the Manhattan quintet would be glad to accept the date of Friday, February 9th, for a game with the Hatchettes in Washington. Possibly this will be the biggest basketball game played in Washington during the coming season. It has been many years since one of the "Big Six" basketball teams has visited this city, and a warm welcome will undoubtedly greet the Manhattanites. With the strong team that G. W. U. expects to place on the floor this year, the game will be an interesting one.

Three new assistant managers were approved by the Student Council last Tuesday evening. They are Lester Johnson, Milton Williams, and William A. Hopkins. All three are energetic men.

A photograph of the full squad will be taken in the auditorium on Tuesday evening, December 12th, at 8.15.

MASONS PLAN CEREMONY

Master Masons! Attention!! There will be at great, grand, glorious, and sublime ceremonial in full amplified form at the Gavel Club rooms, 719 thirteenth Street, on Wednesday, December 13th. All members of the George Washington University Masonic Club are requested to be present at 8.15 p. m. Applications for membership will be received from any member of the faculty, student, or alumnus of the University who is a Master Mason in good standing. All applications received before the above-mentioned date will be acted on in time for the ceremonial. Application forms may be had from the following officers:

R. J. Harding, Law, President.
P. W. Hammock, Columbian, Vice President.
R. B. Benson, Law, Vice President.
T. F. Stewart, Engineering, Vice President.
H. H. James, Engineering, Vice President.
E. O. Seaquist, Engineering, Vice President.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY HEARS TALK.

The George Washington Chemical Society held its November meeting Wednesday, November 29th, in the medical school. Dr. Jones, of the Bureau of Chemistry, delivered an illustrated lecture on proteins and their relation to chemistry. Many of the illustrations were in connection with his experiments upon rats. There was a large attendance and all enjoyed the lecture and the refreshments that followed.

GRAD NEWS

Mrs. R. A. Brannigan (who was Miss Gladys Ames, a graduate of George Washington University), an artist of note, was in Washington last week supervising an exhibit of water colors at the Arts Club.

The University Club of New York, one of the largest women's university clubs in the country with membership limited to graduates of recognized universities and colleges, has, through the efforts of Mrs. Brannigan, admitted George Washington University women graduates to membership.

Miss Katherine Summy, '12, was an instructor in the summer school at the University of Virginia this past summer.

Herman Chubb, president of the class of 1912, is professor of political science in the University of Kansas.

The newly-elected president of the Board of Trade of Washington, E. F. Colladay (National Republican Committeeman of the District of Columbia), is a George Washington University graduate.

WILL HOLD DEBATE TRY-OUTS ON DECEMBER 15

Men Will Argue Kansas Industrial Court Question.

Those who are interested in preparing themselves for future platform speaking will be given an opportunity of displaying their qualities along forensic lines in the try-outs for the Varsity debating teams. George Washington University has always stood out well in the foreground in public speaking and its debating teams, both men and women, have always been credit to the University.

The try-outs for the men will be held in the Law Building on Friday evening, December 15th, at 8 p. m. The subject assigned is, "Resolved, That the United States and the several States should establish industrial courts analogous in principle to the Kansas Industrial Court." The try-outs for women will be held in the same building on Monday evening, December 18th, and the subject assigned for the ladies will be, "Resolved, That the ship subsidy legislation now pending in Congress should be adopted." The men will be limited to five minute speeches, while the allowance for the women will be ten minutes.

Some confusion has arisen as to whether the subject announced for the women's try-outs is that of the George Washington-Cornell debate. It is not. The subject assigned is merely for the try-outs. The intercollegiate debate will not be held until the latter part of February.

ARCHITECTS MEET

Architects of George Washington University will meet in an important session at 2101 G Street N. W., Tuesday evening, December 12, 1922. According to Catharine Hough, secretary, important business for the coming year will be discussed.

W. U. C. GIVES PARTY

The W. U. C. party will be held Thursday, December 14, in the club rooms, at 2027 G Street. All University women are invited. Special features are being planned. Watch the bulletin boards for further information.

The Problem.

Oh, it's nice to think on a moonlit night.
Of love with whispered laughter.
But it's better to think what you'll find to say
When you meet the morning after.

Certainly a Difficulty.

First Flapper. "I almost had a frat pin last night."
Second Flapper. "And did you refuse him?"
First Flapper. Who said I refused anybody? He caught me taking it."
She who hesitates is won.

FIRST ALUMNI QUARTERLY ISSUED—KAYSER EDITOR

On December 1st the Alumni Quarterly was issued for the first time this year.

This little paper published by the Alumni of George Washington University, and edited by Mr. Kayser, the secretary, has for its aim, "To renew and to intensify the interests of all G. W. Alma Mater."

The news items are gotten from all graduates and former students.
Any news intended for publication in this quarterly should be addressed to the Secretary, 2033 G Street N. W., or telephone West 1649.

This paper is full of notices of interest to Alumni, and students also.
For instance, a letter from President Hodgkins, favoring the paper; attention to the Alumni luncheon December 8, and the reunion of the Class of 1912; Alumni officers; one knows where the events of the season can be followed;
the growth of the University is of interest to many others besides the graduate and the present student.

The tickets are now in the hands of the committee, Mr. Patterson, Ford, Everett, and Miss Harrison. The price

HATCHETITES SCORE TOUCHDOWN ON G. U.

Hold Own During First Half With
Score of 13 to 0.

In the big Thanksgiving Day game
with Georgetown's gridiron stars, G. W. had the honor and consolation of scoring a touchdown that was well earned. Playing against the second string Hilltoppers, the Buff and Blue did very well, holding their opponents to a single touchdown each quarter and making their only score. When the G. U. regulars were sent in they experienced little difficulty in running up their total of points and the score stood 46 to 6 when the final whistle was blown.

Starting against Georgetown's Reserve eleven, G. W. fought hard and valiantly, and were able to hold their own all during the first half. Murphy's short and long passes coupled with some hard off-tackle smashes kept the Blue and Gray men baffled and the Hatchetites gained no small amount of ground with this attack. DuFour and Golsen, on some great line plunging, took the ball down the field for long gains and Georgetown managed to score a touchdown in each period, making the score 13 to 0 as the half ended.

G. W.'s touchdown came just after Georgetown's third tally at the beginning of the second half. O'Keefe had received the kick off and returned it to midfield, and after making several gains on short passes and plunges, Murphy shot a long heave to Ptak who carried it to the Blue and Gray five-yard line. O'Keefe plunged for one yard and then Murphy threw a short pass to Laux for what appeared to be a touchdown, but he still had six inches to go. On the next play, Laux dove over the line for the score and the G. W. rooters went wild. Murphy's drop kick for the extra point was well aimed, but lacked height, the ball passing just under the cross bar.

Coach Exendine had been holding his charges back for the Lafayette game which was to follow, but he let them loose in the fourth quarter, and with Flavin and Byrne running wild,
the Hilltoppers annexed 27 points over the tired and worn out Buff and Blue team. Flavin gave a beautiful exhibition of scoring a touchdown on three plays; he ran back the kickoff 40 yards, gained 11 yards on a plunge and then made an exceptionally good end run for the tally.

As a summary, Georgetown made 25 first downs to 7 for the Hatchetites, but on the other hand, G. U. was penalized 65 yards, while G. W. was setback 25 yards.

George Washington scored a moral victory over Georgetown and the lone
"6" accounted for much celebration and joy on the part of the Buff and Blue followers. It was the first time, since the two teams have met, that the Hatchetites have scored an earned touchdown against the Hilltop eleven.
The team deserves a great deal of credit for fighting determinedly after it had gone down to a certain defeat, and the same goes for Coach Quigley who has worked wonders with the material and facilities put before him.

ington University Masonic Club are

50 YEARS REQUIRED TO COMPLETE G. W. COURSES

Do you find any trouble in selecting the subjects you want to take from the many offered in the catalogue? If so, your troubles are over, for it is found unnecessary to make a selection. You can take them all! It has been carefully calculated that it would only take a little over fifty years to study all the subjects now taught in our Arts and Sciences Department. The average student could easily complete this course by the time he is seventy years old. And then, if he is really ambitious, there are the Law and Medical Departments of G. W. U.

DOYLE REELECTED IN TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Henry Gratton Doyle, professor of romance languages, was reelected secretary and treasurer of the Association of Modern Language Teachers of the Middle States and Maryland at a meeting of that association December 2, at Wilmington, Del. Professor Douglass L. Buffom of Princeton was elected president, and Professor H.
Carrington Lancaster of Johns Hopkins was elected vice-president.

The meeting of this association was a part of the business transacted at the meeting of the Association of Schools and Colleges of the Middle States and Maryland at which George N. Henning, dean of the school of graduate studies, and DeWitt C. Croissant, professor of english, represented
George Washington University with Professor Doyle.

COMPULSORY TAX

C. Melville Walker, secretary of Pyramid and last year's editor of the University Hatchet, made the following statement: "The Hatchet could be made a real newspaper if properly backed up financially. I found last year that there was plenty of material in the University ready and capable to serve on the editorial and business staffs. In the majority of colleges, with an enrollment of five thousand students, as we have here, there are daily papers with four pages of regular newspaper size. If a compulsory tax were instituted, the paper would have a circulation of five thousand instead of eight hundred, at the present time, and because of this sufficient advertising could be secured to more than pay for the cost of publishing.
The compulsory tax would afford sufficient advertising capital to develop the Hatchet to a status impossible to be attained under the present conditions."

W. R. Stokes, manager of the rifle team, is a firm believer in the activity tax, as his remarks show: "The sport of target rifle shooting is now officially adopted by schools and colleges everywhere. Men and women, equally, are finding this new sport, splendidly adapted to a place in the list of school activities; it is a sport with a prosperous present and a promising future.
And among the universities where rifle shooting should be a prominent student activity, George Washington stands perhaps first, largely because we get every year from the local high schools a number of well-trained marksmen. At the present time we have the material for both men's and women's intercollegiate championship rifle teams, but we have no adequate facilities for equipping and training these shooters. The only way we shall ever be able to realize our possibilities is through a compulsory student tax which would create an activities fund sufficient to give us the range and the equipment we need.
